We learn that the choir of the Brook, Walnut and Eighth street Methodist churches have united to give a grand concert for the benefit of the beautiful little Methodist church erected recently in Portland, and which is under the pastoral care of the excellent divine, Mr. Goodson.

The concert will be given at the Masonic Temple on the evening of the 19th, when we can promise an ample return to all who attend it. The separate choirs of these churches are already known, and, united, they will blend like so many chords in music to make a perfect union of harmony and melody.

SALE OF NEGROES.—Sheriff Ronald made the following sales of negroes at the Court-house yesterday morning: Joe Martin, $500; Louisa, $705; Charles, $450; Fielding, $745; Eliza Jane, $530; Jim Tay, $305; Jerry $230; Moses, $610; George Richard, $730; Boland, $900; George Yagan, $475; Emily, $70; Mary $440; Rebecca, $410; Tom, $735; William Henry, $400; Adam, $480; Pleasant, $620; John Bright, $400; Joe Murrell, $250; John Lebs, $500; Charles Welburn, $445; Peyton Lebs, $500; Robert Robinson, $525; Nelson $455; Lizzie, $555; Joe Steel, $455.

GONE NORTH.—Capt. Bilcoo, an officer of the Confederate army, took the oath of allegiance yesterday, and was released from the military prison. He leaves to-day, having accepted an invitation from the military authorities to go north of the Ohio river, and remain there until the present difficulty is settled, with the understanding that if he returns before he is sent for he will be shot.

BARACKS No. 1.—Seventy men reported at Barracks No. 1 yesterday. The following number were transferred:

To Louisville, Ky. 24
To Nashville, Tenn. 2
To Cairo, Ill. 2
To Bowling Green, Ky. 2
To Glasgow, Ky. 2
To General Hospital. 3
To Military Prison. 2

A SOLDIER SHOT AND KILLED BY THE GUARDS. A soldier was shot by the guard on Marshall street, last Saturday night, while attempting to escape from their custody. He received three balls, the third passing through his body, causing death at about twenty minutes. He was taken to Hospital No. 10. We were unable to learn his name.

OVER THE RIVER.—Two rebel deserters, J. H. Covington and Robert Howe, both Kentuckians, were sent by Major Farris from Barracks No. 1 yesterday over the river, to remain out of Kentucky until the war is over, with the order not to return under penalty of death if they should.

The military authorities are sending a number of men daily over the river, who, if they return until the war is over, will be put to death. The Ohio may be called the river of Death, for it's death to them if they cross it.

Two deserters were captured behind the scenes at Wood's theater last night by the detectives. They have been acting in the capacity of "scene-shifters." They have shifted their last scene.

A lot of rebel prisoners were started to Baltimore yesterday afternoon, in charge of a squad of the Twenty-fifth Michigan. We did not learn how many there were.

The Police Court-room was crowded yesterday. Among the prisoners we noticed another batch of the forty thieves.

Quite a number of negroes were immersed in the river Sunday, at the millboat landing.

Twenty-two men reported at Barracks No. 1 Sunday. Seventy-six were transferred.

Two hundred and seventy-six rebel prisoners arrived from Nashville Sunday morning.

A lot of refugees came down on the train from Lexington last evening.

Jefferson County Court.

MONDAY, May 4, 1863.

Inventories of the estates of Eliza Whitley, Robert Korb, Nancy Pearman and Dorathia Ortman were filed for record.

Mary Cunningham was appointed guardian of Robert Modora and Mary Jane Cunningham; Wm. Samuels security.

A paper, purporting to be the will of Louis Rohrbend, was presented, but not being proved according to law, was rejected.

The will of Rosannah Stack was proved and admitted to record.

The will of Mrs. Elizabeth R. Tuostall was proved and admitted to record; John Burks qualified as executor without security as requested by the will.

Rice McKee filed petition for license to keep a tavern on the Shelbyville turnpike, fourteen miles from the city.

The settled accounts of Ann McMahon, administratrix of Patrick McMahon, and John C. Webb, guardian of Louisa A. White, were filed and continued for exceptions.

The will of Cornelius Nist was proved and admitted to record.

Salina Dempster was qualified (on the 30th) as administratrix of Thomas Dempster; J. Kirkpatrick security.

Jacob Bauer was qualified as administrator of Gotlieb Hauk; J. Fred Schmidt security.

Sophia Seabolt was qualified as administratrix of Amos Seabolt; J. Fred Hikes and Andrew Hikes securities.

Maria Kohland was qualified as administratrix of Louis Kohland; Charles Neff and J. F. Baeth securities.

The will of Abraham Hite was proved and admitted to record; Mrs. Salena Hite and Thomas L. Barret qualified as executors without security as requested by the will.

Elizabeth Tucker was qualified as guardian of Anna Lant; David Shroeder security.

August Rantz was appointed administrator of Anna Felix O'Donnell; George Pargny security.

WOODS THEATER.—MR. JOHN E. OWENS.—This unrivaled comedian appeared according to announcement last night. Our play-goers exhibited a true appreciation of talent by filling the theater on the occasion. And we were pleased to notice the very large attendance of the elite of the city. We have rarely witnessed a more genuine success than the performances. Mr. Owens is an artist of rare merit, and we do not wonder at the ardor of admiration his engagements invariably excite in other cities. His talents are sure to command success wherever he appears; he deserves, and will receive the warm and generous support of the enlightened and refined portion of the community.

The elegant comic comedy of "Married Life" was well performed by the members of the company sustaining the various characters; and Mr. Dove, in the hands of Mr. Owens, was one of the happiest and most successful delineations we have witnessed for many a day. As much as the audience admire and applauded it, however, it did not prevent the most enthusiastic manifestations of delight during the impersonation of Solon Shingle by the matchless comedian. His performance of this character was a perfect gem of mimic art.

This evening Mr. Owens will appear in one of his most celebrated characters, Dr. Pangloss, LL. D. A. S. S., in the "Heir at Law." He will also sustain a very amusing character in the farce of Forty Winks.

SCHOOL BOARD.—The School Board met last night, when the following business was transacted:

The reports of the different committees were received and appropriately referred.

The reports of the committees from the different wards show the schools to be in a prosperous and healthy condition.

A communication was read, directed to the General Council of the city of Louisville, asking an appropriation for building purposes. In the last few years the city authorities have been appealed to time and again for this purpose, but with no success. We hope that our city fathers will take this matter into serious consideration; a committee has been appointed to confer with them upon this subject.

Also, an application to borrow from the sinking fund of the city of Louisville the sum of eighteen thousand dollars, for the purpose of paying the teachers.

Miss Minnie Buechler resigned her position as German teacher in the Eighth ward school. Miss Carrie Arnold was elected to fill the vacancy. Then the Board adjourned.

MILITARY.—Geo. Ash, a deserter from the rebel army, who lives in the vicinity of Bardonia, Kentucky, was committed to the military prison yesterday morning, and released in the afternoon. He took the oath, and is to report himself every two weeks at headquarters.

Geo. Allen and Tom Brown, two deserters, were released upon taking the oath and reporting themselves weekly.

M. Wyrick and D. M. Morgan, both rebel deserters, were committed yesterday.

A young man named Hays was released upon taking the oath and giving $5,000 bonds.

John B. Forman was allowed the privilege of taking the oath and crossing the river, to remain out of this State until the war is over, under a penalty of death if he fail to comply with the order.

There were a few other arrests, but not of much importance.

NEW MUSIC.—Mr. D. P. Pauls has laid upon our table "The Bugle Call," a book edited by George F. Root, Esq., just issued by Root & Cady. It contains all the latest patriotic songs, glees, and choruses, with new and original music. Also, a beautiful song, by Otto Sutor, entitled "A Mother's Prayer," embellished with a handsome lithograph. Every lover of music should have each of the above.

The following sales were made by the marshal of the chancery court May 4th, 1863:

By 100, south side Main street, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth, $300 00; 35 by 92, southeast corner Jackson and Lampton streets, with the house thereon, $300 00; 30 by 22, northeast corner Broadway and Fourth streets, $625 00; 30 by 22, on Broadway, adjoining the above, $637 50.

THE SPEAKING AT NEW CASTLE.—On yesterday Hon. Nathaniel Wolfe addressed a large number of the citizens of Henry county, at the courthouse in Newcastle. The speech of Mr. W. is represented as marked by peculiar ability, and as having been listened to with the closest attention. We are promised a synopsis of it, which we shall lay before our readers.

Yesterday morning, about 9 o'clock, Mr. George Emory, of Ohio, rode his horse into the river at the Jeffersonville wharf, when he unfortunately stepped off the abutment, and Mr. E. was drowned within a few feet of the shore. The horse was saved. Mr. Emory, we believe, had something to do with Government horses. His brother was in search of the body, but had not recovered it up to noon yesterday.

A construction train on the Memphis and Charleston railroad was captured about four miles from Grand Junction on the 13th, together with all the force on it. The engine-car was burned.

RELEASED.—Mr. R. W. Rose was released from the military prison yesterday morning upon taking the oath of allegiance. No bonds were required.

Where were the lamp-lighters last night? The moon forgot to throw aside her dark veil and reveal her lovely face.

The same of the man who was killed in the canal yesterday was Anthony Saffy. He fell from a platform car.

The Nashville train arrived on time last evening, with a big trip of passengers. All quiet.
